

Privacy Statement

The NATO International Staff (IS) collects the personal data necessary for the purpose of organising your participation to this activity/event. We only collect personal data for legitimate purposes that are necessary for the provision of our services, to manage the official activity/event registration and to maintain and report data and other associated data management activities related to organising the activity and/or event for which the data subject registers. The provided services are in line with NATO policies and procedures, including on security and information management.

In cases where NATO IS uses external providers for event organisation purposes or needs to transfer your data to third parties, your personal data may be shared with those entities insofar as necessary for the fulfilment of their tasks and in accordance with NATO policies and procedures. Your personal data is only processed by these entities to the extent necessary for the legitimate purposes described above.

Should you have any questions concerning the processing of your personal data, please contact us at PDPP.HQ@HQ.NATO.INT
